

Business Women Honored

CELEBRATING—Members of the local chapter observed National Business and Professional Women's Week Oct. 4 through Oct. 10 with a working gal's luncheon at the Palms Friday. Mayor Albert Isen made the week official locally in a recent proclamation. Chaffing at the affair are, left, Dorothy Kirkpatrick, Maxine Hahn and Ladeens Chamberlain.

Delta's Donation to Aid Afflicted Children

Two small children are literally breathing easier today and a grateful mother has expressed her thanks to friends and members of South Bay Tri Delta alumnae chapter for their part in easing her youngsters' suffering.

The children are victims of cystic fibrosis—an incurable lung disease. To alleviate the pain doctors at Harbor General Hospital recommended an humidifier. None was available for home use.

Informed of this need, South Bay Tri Deltas have purchased a humidifier for the hospital to be loaned to needy children, according to Mrs. Edward B. Wilder, chapter president.

Tri Deltas will hold their regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m., next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John W. Van Camp, 26335 Golden Spar Road, Rolling Hills Estates.

All Tri Deltas in the area are invited to attend and may call Mrs. Van Camp at FR. 5-7386 for reservations.

Serving with Mrs. Van Camp as co-hostesses will be Mmes. John M. Basler and Henry P. Sullivan.

The program will be devoted to motion pictures—The Way of the Navajo and Monument Valley—and discussion of the Navajo by Mrs. Keith Crown.

Mrs. Crown and her husband, associate professor of fine arts at USC, spent some time among the Navajo tribe in New Mexico.

Wedding Vows Unite Johnson and McMillon

Miss Minnie Magdalene Johnson, daughter of Mrs. A. Johnson, walked down the aisle of the Calvary Community Church of Torrance, Sept. 19 at 8 p.m., to become the bride of Ronald Lee McMillon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon McMillon of Corona, Ronald is the grandson of Mrs. Mildred Greer of 1113 W. 204th St.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white silk cryptoleen with gold medallions. A coronet of orange blossoms held her tulle allusion length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and tulle with pink streamers.

The bride's sister Mrs. Tommy Shire, was matron of honor. She was dressed in white and gold with a corsage of white orchids. The benedict was served by his brother Gordon, as best man. The mother of the bride wore a light green dress with brown orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white orchid corsage.

Rev. Donald E. Flentge, pastor of Calvary Community Church, officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Mabel Flentge, his wife, played the wedding march and "I Love You Truly," "Beacuse" and "Oh, Promise Me." The church was decorated with red gladiolas, white stock and red-carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was given at the home of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Eban Holden, of 1454 214th St. Gifts were opened in the pink and white decorated patio and the wedding cake was served to the guests.

The newlyweds will make their home in Fullerton.

Silver Tea, Flower Show Date Announced

Garden sections of the Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs will sponsor a fall flower show and "Pennies for Pines" silver tea Oct. 16 and 17 at the Inglewood Women's Club, 325 N. Hillcrest Blvd., Inglewood.

The flower show will be open to the public from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. The club house will be open at 7 a.m. for entries. All exhibits must be in place for judging at 10 a.m.

Door prizes will be awarded on the hour.

Mrs. John W. Thuss, Marina District garden chairman, announced that four gold trophies will be presented the winners.

Awards will be given for the best club entry, best flower arrangement, most points in specimen blooms and potted plants and most all over points.

First, second, third and honorable mention ribbons will be given under each classification.

Only members of the Marina District 18, may enter the contest. No admission or registration fees will be charged.

Mrs. A. L. Hammond, conservation chairman, will serve as chairman of the tea.

Hostesses for both days will be, Mrs. Homer Rolles, president of the Inglewood Woman's Club and Mrs. Thuss, president of the Torrance Woman's Club and district garden chairman.

School Paper Drive

A paper drive will be held at 223rd St. School Oct. 19.

Papers will be picked up by contacting the following women, Mmes. Willis Arbaugh, FA. 8-0300, Carl Epperheimer, FA. 8-6905; Wayne Smith, FA. 8-2238; Charles Cake, FA. 8-7526; and Raymond Dossey, FA. 8-2027.

Autumn Fashion Show Planed by St. John's

"A Touch of Autumn" will be the theme for the St. James Council of Catholic Women's fashion show, Oct. 22 at 8 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Eagles Hall.

Donation tickets for the affair are $2 per person. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. L. Keller, FR. 4-1197.

Fall styles will be presented by the Sea Horse and Nita's Maternity Shop.

Models will be Mmes. John Brady, Dee Carson, William Morken, Gary O'Neill, Joseph Sciarra, Richard Martin, Peter Clarke, James Burachinger, Robert Dobson, Maurice Potvin, Robert Falcone, Vincent Schumacker, Charles Bongard and John Joseph.

Lambda Chapter to Meet

Xi Zeta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will meet Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Whitesell, 18011 Elgar St.

Miss Blanche Wright, program chairman, will introduce Mrs. Eric Swanson who will speak on "Taste and Smell" and Mrs. Raymond Millhouse whose speech is titled "The Sense of Hearing." Mrs. Bert Whited, social chairman, will outline plans for future social events.

MRS. GLEN IVEN HADEEN

—Photo by Seeman

Judy Wheeler, Glen Hadeen Recite Vows

Miss Judy Nell Wheeler became the bride of Glen Iven Hadeen at ceremonies performed Sept. 4 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. Albert Wideman officiated at the ceremonies. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Wheeler of 1345 Walkin Place, San Pedro, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a bridal gown of white satin with sequin trim for the ceremony.

Her cascade bouquet was composed of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Karen Cadenbach and Miss Mary Jean Young served as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of baby blue taffeta and carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Thomas Harris acted as the best man for the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hadeen of Everson, Washington. Loren Ogden acted in the role of usher.

The bride's mother wore a dress of beige crepe with beige accessories for the occasion.

Following the ceremony a reception for the newlyweds was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The new Mrs. Hadeen is presently attending San Pedro High School. Hadeen is stationed with the U.S. Navy at Long Beach.

The couple will make their home in San Pedro.

Fireladies to Install Officers

Torrance Fireladies will install new officers Nov. 7 following luncheon at the Plush Horse.

Reservations for the luncheon-installation may be obtained by calling Mrs. Ronald Powers at FA. 0-0939 before Nov. 1.

Election will take place at the groups next meeting Nov. 2 at the home of Mrs. Harlan Whitacre, 2240 W. 243 St.

A nominating committee was selected at the recent meeting of the club members held at the home of Mrs. Charles Reintema.

Attending were: Mmes. Billy C. Stonecker, Ronald Powers, Sam Martin, Richard Sprout, Milton T. Langum, John Ferraiolo, Teddy Drake, Robert Moffitt, James Wass and co-hostess Walter West.

Vicki Feldon Exhibit Slated to Open at Co-op

An exhibit of paintings and prints by Torrance artist Vicki Feldon will open today at the Artists Co-op Gallery, 121 South Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach.

The exhibition will continue through Oct. 24. Gallery hours are 1 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, and 1 to 9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Two print-making demonstrations will be given by the artist, one on opening day from 3 to 5 p.m. and the other on the following Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. Stages in print-making from the preliminary drawing to the final print on Japanese rice paper will be shown.

Vicki Feldon received most of her art education in New York City, studying at the Cooper Union Art Institute and the Art Students League, with additional courses at the Akron Art Institute, Akron, Ohio.

She has exhibited in New York and Akron as well as locally with the Torrance art group and the South Bay Community Arts Association. Her past one-man shows were held at the Torrance Woman's Club, Manhattan Beach library, Redondo Beach library and the Open Gallery, Playa del Rey.

Business Week Planned by FWC Board

The executive board of the California Federation of Women's Clubs will meet Tuesday through Thursday, Oct. 27, 28 and 29, in Long Beach. Mrs. A. F. Benton of Merced, president, will conduct the business sessions with the Lafayette Hotel as headquarters.

Mrs. Frederic Spencer of North Hollywood, vice-president at large, Area C, and Mrs. Maezer Wilson of Downey, president, Los Cerritos district, will hostess the meeting, which will be attended by the executive committee members, state chairmen and presidents of 26 districts in California.

A highlight will come Wednesday evening at the state board banquet when Mrs. Frank Corvill of Los Angeles, Mrs. Alf E. Uddenberg of San Francisco and Mrs. Joseph Morgan of Inglewood relate their experiences on the recent General Federation of Women's Clubs Asian tour, Manila conference and round-the-world tour.

"Now Is the Time" is theme chosen by Mrs. A. F. Van Ness of Fresno, state parliamentarian, for her address Wednesday morning.

Thursday's program will feature special reports by Mrs. E. L. Berdrow of McFarland, safety chairman; Mrs. J. B. Atkinson of Pasadena, conservation chairman, and Mrs. Donald Amato, director of junior membership.

Tentative plans for the state convention in Los Angeles next May will be discussed by Mrs. Grant Putnam of Inglewood, convention chairman.

Also scheduled are reports by Federation officers and department chairmen.

Y COMMITTEE MEET

The administration committee of Torrance YWCA will meet at the "Y," 2330 West Carson St., tomorrow at 9:30 a.m.

for and about Women

MARY NETH, WOMAN'S EDITOR

TELEPHONE FAirfax 8-2345

FASHION FROM GARDEN TO COCKTAILS highlighted Monday's luncheon-style show at the Garden Club. Chatting at the luncheon are (left) Mmes. W. O. Pratt, Sidney Greene and Kent Roberts Jr.

Susan Saari; Flora Watson to Attend Y-Teen Conference

Two Torrance Y-Teens have been selected to represent the Harbor Area YWCA at the second National Y-Teen Conference on Youth's Role in National and World Affairs in New York and Washington, D. C., Nov. 1 thru Nov. 8.

Susan Saari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Saari, has served as vice-president and secretary of the Luther League. She attended a church conference in New York as a member of the Youth Choir.

She has been president, secretary and Inter-Club Council representative and chaplain of her Y-Teen Club. At Torrance High she is a Tartar Lady and has been vice-president of the sophomore class, member and GAA yell leader.

Flora Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Watson, is an active member of her Y-Teen Club. She has attended senior high conferences and carried leadership in the officers training. She has served as freshman and sophomore council representative, Junior Girls Court representative and song queen at Torrance High School.

The girls have been chosen on the basis of conference experience, YWCA participation, extra-curricular activities, grade average and ability to participate in the conference itself and carry leadership in interpreting and implementing the conference when they return home.

The girls will leave for New York by jet Oct. 31 and will return from Washington, D. C., Nov. 8. Upon their return they will speak to various club and community groups.

In addition to briefing sessions on the United Nations and the workings of the national conference sessions, the group will tour the UN building, visit the Metropolitan Museum of Fine Arts, see the Music Man, and attend the YW World Fellowship Vespers at the National Cathedral at Washington.

School Discipline to Be Discussed

"Discipline" will be discussed from five angles at the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee meeting Monday noon at the Torrance YWCA.

Different viewpoints of discipline will be presented by James Miller, parent and Seaside PFA president; Officer H. B. Ingram, head, Torrance Police Juvenile Bureau; James Armstrong, Wood School teacher; Don Mullaney, Wood principal; and Richard Hubert, Torrance schools' welfare and attendance supervisor.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Dr. Louis Kaplan, assistant superintendent in charge of special services and research. Assistant Superintendent S. E.

Uni-Women Set Brunch, Fashion Date

Brunch, fashions and bridge will be the triple features of the annual fall fund-raising event planned Nov. 5 by the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch.

Reservations for the affair at the La Venta Inn, Palos Verdes, may be obtained by calling Mrs. Donald Leonard, FR. 8-1614.

Guests will gather around a punch bowl on the patio at 11 a.m., according to Mrs. H. C. O'Brien, chairman. Brunch and a Fall fashion show will be followed by bridge, canasta or conversation.

Proceeds from the affair, sponsored by the fellowship committee, will go to the AAUW fellowship fund, which aids women in advanced education or research.

Waldrip will report on school construction. Reservation should be made by Thursday (Oct. 8) by calling FA. 8-8080.

"A TOUCH OF AUTUMN"—Mrs. Victor De Rosa, chairman of the St. James Council of Catholic Women's fashion show, displays one of the dresses that will be shown at the event to member models (left) Mmes. Charles K. Bongard, Robert Dobson and Maurice Potvin. The fall fashion show will be held at the Redondo Beach Eagles Hall, Oct. 22.